

TEN X SHOOTING CLUB

presents the:

2020 NRA OPEN INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS CONVENTIONAL PISTOL SECTIONAL March 6 - 7 - 8, 2020

Location: 853 Ransom Road, Lancaster (Buffalo), New York; see map on last page of this program. Lodging information available from Match Secretary.

Sponsors: The National Rifle Association and Ten-X Shooting Club, Inc. Our indoor range has 20 electronically timed, pneumatically operated target points. It has excellent facilities, ventilation and heating.

The 2020 NRA Open Sectional National Indoor Pistol Championships are being fired at local Sectional Tournaments throughout the United States. Each competitor in this tournament will be entered automatically in the National Championship and all scores will be submitted to the NRA for national awards and ranking.

National Indoor Championships Match Officials:

Match Director: Cole McCulloch
Statistical Officer: Elizabeth Martin

Eligibility: Individual entries are open to all NRA Membership is not required to compete, but it is encouraged. NRA members must put their member ID number on their entry card. National Records may only be set by NRA members. Junior competitors must be accompanied by a parent or guardian and the person owning the pistol used by the junior competitor must be physically present during the match. Individuals and teams may enter only one (1) NRA Conventional Pistol Sectional during 2020.

Rules: For this tournament, all current NRA Pistol Rules will govern.

Equipment: .22 Caliber Pistol (Rule 3.4)

Course of Fire: 50 feet. NRA B-2 slow fire target & B-3 timed/rapid fire targets used.

Match 1:	.22 Caliber	Slow fire	20 Shots
2:	.22 Caliber	Timed fire	20 Shots
3:	.22 Caliber	Rapid fire	20 Shots
4:	.22 Caliber	National Gallery Course	30 Shots
5:		Aggregate of Matches 1,2,3 & 4	NOT FIRED
6:	.22 Caliber	Team Match - National Gallery Course	30 Shots

Classifications: The NRA Classification system will be used. If you have a classification, proof of classification must be presented; NRA Classification Cards and Temporary Score Books are accepted. League classifications are acceptable with proper proof. Unclassified competitors will fire in the Master class.

Categories: Separate class awards for National Individual and Team championships will be given in each of three categories: Civilian, Police and Service. Local Sectional Class & Category awards will be given. See the award schedule in this program. Separate categories and awards will be offered to the high grand senior (age 70+), senior (age 60+), Junior, and Woman.

Awards:

The National Rifle Association will provide separate National Indoor Pistol Championship awards for Individual and Team entrants per their schedule. NRA will also provide Sectional Individual and Team Championship awards to be awarded at this match. All awards will be according to the following schedule, and, where mentioned, award points are equal to U.S. dollar equivalents (but not necessarily exchangeable):

1. Sectional Open Awards: First place will given regardless of the number of competitors in the sectional. There must be a minimum of 15 competitors for second place and a minimum of 30 competitors for third place to be given. Winner, Second and Third will receive, respectively, a Gold Sectional Medallion and 15 award points; a Silver Sectional Medallion and 10 award points; a Bronze Sectional Medallion and 5 award points.
2. Sectional class and category awards: Separate awards will be given in the five classes: High Master, Master, Expert, Sharpshooter, & Marksman. There must be at least 5 competitors to establish a class and/or category. If there are less than five (5) competitors in any class or category, that class or category will be combined with the next higher class, except that if there are fewer than five (5) High Masters, High Masters will fire for open awards only and Masters will not be combined with High Masters. There will be a First Place in each established class and category. A Second Place in class and category will be awarded provided there are at least 8 competitors. A Third Place in class and category requires 13 competitors. A Fourth Place in class and category requires 24 competitors. Sectional Class and Category awards are provided by NRA & the Sponsor. First in class and category receives 10 NRA award points, second in class and category receives 8 NRA award points, and third in class and category receives 6 NRA award points. NRA award points are equivalent to and exchangeable for cash.
3. Team awards: Winning team award given with 20 award points to be furnished by the NRA. Second place requires at least 5 teams with 16 award points furnished by Ten-X.
4. Special Category awards: High Grand Senior, High Senior, High Junior, and High Woman.

Souvenirs:

Each competitor will receive a souvenir Sectional Pin provided by the NRA and a match souvenir provided the sponsor, Ten X Shooting Club.

Notice:

Professional conduct and the highest level of sportsmanship are expected of all competitors at all times. This should not need to be said. We reserve the right to exclude or eject anyone not conducting themselves in a safe and/or orderly manner. Further, the Ten-X Shooting Club, Inc., the National Rifle Association of America, Inc., their officers, members, as well as their successors, representatives and guests assume no responsibility or liability for any accidents occurring on or in the vicinity of the range, regardless as to their cause or nature. Competitors assume all risks of any nature in connection with attending and/or participating in this Sectional. The competitor's entry into this tournament will be deemed a voluntary acceptance of these terms by the shooter.
